

Open Access & Copyright Policy

International scientific journal Journal of Baltic Science Education publishes all articles under the open access model, defined under Budapest open access declarations. The full content of the articles published by JBSE is freely available for anyone to read, download, print, use, re-use and build upon. The published articles are distributed under the Creative Commons Attribution-Non-Commercial 4.0 International License, which permits unrestricted use, distribution and reproduction, free of charge, in any medium, provided that the original author(s) and original Publisher are given due credit.

Copyright for articles published in this journal is retained by the authors, with first publication rights granted to the journal. The authors retain ownership of the copyright for their article, but authors grant others permission to use the content of publications in JBSE in whole or in part provided that the original work is properly cited. Users (redistributors) of JBSE are required to cite the original source, including the author's names, JBSE as the initial source of publication, year of publication, volume/issue number and DOI (if available). Authors grant JBSE the right of first and subsequent publication (in print and e-version). Although authors remain the copyright owner, they grant the journal the irrevocable, nonexclusive rights to publish, reproduce, publicly distribute and display, and transmit their article or portions thereof in any manner.
